Course Format Designations:

DL: Designates a synchronous course that takes place via live-streaming (e.g. ZOOM). Students attend each class together at a certain time. DL courses can be either intensive (1 to 2 weeks/all day) or semester-long courses.

DLA: Designates an asynchronous, semester-long course that is accessed through an online learning platform. Students log in to the course when it suits their schedule, to complete course requirements. Course assignments have scheduled deadlines throughout the term.

Blended: Delineates a synchronous course that is offered both onsite and online at the same time. Sometimes only the first half or the second half of a course is blended, in which case, the other half may be offered onsite only.
